

Nalanda open university

MA in Journalism and mass communication

(MJMC – Part 1)

Sub- Media Laws and Ethics

(Paper- 7)

Contents:

- A brief introduction of Indian constitution.

Introduction- constitutional development in India.

- (1) First phase – east india company's rule.
- (2) Second phase – Rule of British parliament.
- (3) Third phase – Formation of Indian constitution.

- Freedom of press – freedom of speech and expression.
 - Art.19(1) & Art.19(2) of Indian constitution.
 - Reasonable restrictions on freedom of press.
- Provisions for proclamation of emergency.
 - Provisions of emergency (Art. 352 to 360 of constitution).
 - effects of emergency.
- Parliamentary privileges.
 - Parliamentary privileges in indian constitution.

- Limitations of Indian Parliamentary privileges.
- Parliamentary privilege and press (privileges & judiciary).
- Procedure and punishment.
- History of press laws in India.
 - post independence, after independence
 - other laws for press.
- Defamation.
 - introduction and explanation (civil and criminal defamation).
 - Defamation in Indian penal code and punishment.
- Different provisions regarding press in IPC & CRPC.
- Contempt of court.
 - elements of contempt of court.
 - contempt of lower courts, high courts and supreme court.
 - contempt of court and press punishment for contempt of court.
- Press and books registration act(1867).
- The working journalist and other employee (conditions of service and mis.provision) act 1955.
 - introduction, explanation & provisions of the ACT.

- Service conditions ,post retirement & other provisions of the act.

- Right to information act 2005.

- Introduction, explanation & provisions of the RTI act.

- Public information officer, state information commission & central information commission (formation,duties & powers).

- Provisions given to RRTI act 2005 by high courts and supreme court.

- Effects and use of right to information.

- Official secret act 1923.

- Provisions, effect of the act.

- use of the act in present context.

- Intellectual property rights and act.

- patent, patent act 1970, trade mark act 1999.

- Registrationof patent and trade mark.

- Copyright act 1957.

- Introduction, explanation & provisions of act 1957.

- Registration & time limit under the act.

- Effects of the act .

- Limitations & effects of copyright act.

- Amendments in the act.

- Powers of courts under the act and punishment.
- The information technology act 2000.
- Laws regarding electronic media.
 - Cinematography act 1952
 - Certification of films.
 - Prasar Bharti act 1990.
 - Cable TV act 1995.
- Press and other legal provisions.
- Press council of india.
 - History, needs & formation of press council.
 - working of press council.
 - Powers and effects.
 - Press council act 1978.
 - Amendments in the act.
- Press commission.
 - First press commission (formation & purpose).
 - Main recommendations of first press commission.
 - Second press commission
 - Effects & utility of press commission.
- Code of conduct for public relation and advertising.

- Code of conduct for press.
 - Why code of conduct for press?
 - code of conduct prescribed by different organizations of press. Its use ,effects on press and society

Narendra tiwari

Councillor : Journalism & M.C.

NOU patna

Mobile : 9234278669